

Linda Rohrer, Vice Chair

Linda Rohrer is a trailblazer in every sense of the word, a woman who is a leader in business, a philanthropist who has helped change the face of non-profit organizations throughout the region, and a volunteer who has long contributed to her native Haddon Township, N.J., and the region overall. A businessperson, banker, civic leader, mother, grandmother and former school teacher, Rohrer is dedicated to her work, her community and serving people young and old alike.

Business

Rohrer is the president of Rohrer & Sayers Real Estate in Haddon Township, the firm she founded more than 35 years ago. Rohrer & Sayers has a large presence, especially in bustling Camden County, and Ms. Rohrer has experience and expertise in the selling, buying, leasing and managing of commercial and residential real estate in southern New Jersey as well as in developing properties that are important to the local economy. She has helped young families find their first homes and major companies relocate to the region. From the start, she was successful, as evidenced membership in the Million Dollar Sales Club for close to a decade, when her field was largely dominated by men.

Philanthropy

She also is a trustee of the William G. Rohrer Charitable Foundation. That foundation has supported such important South Jersey institutions as Cooper University Hospital, Rowan University, Camden County College and numerous organizations and initiatives in Haddon Township.

Community

At Rowan University, the Foundation has funded what is now known as the Rohrer College of Business, the William G. Rohrer Professional Chair and Rohrer business scholarships.

Current chairman of the Rowan University Board of Trustees, Ms. Rohrer has served on that body since 2009, during a time of major transitions. She also serves on the Rowan University Foundation Board.

Additionally, she is or has been:

- President, Commercial, Industrial & investment Real Estate Brokers of New Jersey
- Chairperson, Haddon Township/American Heart Association
